“Only What My God Says”

2 Chronicles 17-18: Jehoshaphat

This evening, we are going to consider the life of King Jehoshaphat, who we looked at together last Sunday morning. Jehoshaphat was a largely good, but by no means perfect, king, who delighted in obedience to God and His Word (17:3-4).

Read 2 Chronicles 17:1-6

- 1) What does Jehoshaphat teach us about the value of God’s Word?
How should we practically respond to his example?
- 2) How does the obedience of Christ bring blessings into our lives that exceed the favour Jehoshaphat enjoyed from the Lord?

Read 2 Chronicles 18:1-17. Or cast your eye over it. Or ask someone else to summarise it for you!

- 3) Into what context did Micaiah the prophet speak? What similarities do we see in our own day?
- 4) What lessons can we learn from the faithful example of Micaiah in fearlessly proclaiming the Word of God and how does this ultimately point us to Christ?

Share together some of the challenges of seeking to stand on the firm foundation of God’s Word in what you’ll be facing this week: pray for one another accordingly.
