For I delight in your commands
because I love them.
I reach out for your commands,
which I love,
that I may meditate on your decrees.

Dear friends,

It has been a joy to hear that many of you have been encouraged in your reading of God's Word by following our Christ Church Dunstable Daily Bible Readings.

Our prayer is that we, as a church family, would grow in our love for the Lord and His Word day by day, and year by year. With that in mind, we have produced a new Daily Readings plan for 2025, which we trust you find helpful.

2025 Daily Readings

This year, there are three columns of readings: one for the Psalms, one for the first part of the rest of the Old Testament, and one for the New Testament. As ever, please do not feel you need to cover everything in the attached plan. Rather, aim to work through as many of the columns as is manageable for you.

The breakdown of Psalms readings follows Warren Wiersbe's excellent modern devotional book on the Psalms, 'Prayer, Praise and Promises'. We think you will find this to be a great accompaniment to your reading of the Psalms.

Operation World

In addition to the Daily Bible Readings laid out in this booklet, do join us in praying for our world by using the Operation World app or website each day. You can sign-up for a daily prayer email on the website.

These resources feature prayer points for a different country every day. You can access the website at operationworld.org, or download the app from your smartphone app store searching 'Operation World'.

May this coming year be one in which we enjoy the richness of God's Word in increasing measure.

With our best wishes to you all,

Mark Lawrence & Gareth Mitchell

Pastors,

Christ Church Dunstable

3. Is there any instruction given by the Spirit-inspired author to us, the readers?
4. What part of the Psalm can you use to turn into your prayer to God today?

2. What do we learn here about ourselves? (For example, about our sinful hearts or about God's plans and purposes for us...)
3. Can you see how this Old Testament passage points us to the hope of the Gospel of Christ Jesus?
